Read the story and answer the questions.

Once upon a time, there was a little caterpillar named Charlie. Charlie was always curious about the world around him. He loved to crawl around and explore everything he could find.

One day, while crawling around, Charlie saw a big, beautiful butterfly fluttering in the sky. Charlie had never seen anything like it before! He wondered how he could become a butterfly too.

Charlie asked his friends, the ants and ladybugs, for help. They told him that to become a butterfly, he would have to go through a big change called metamorphosis.

Charlie was determined to become a butterfly, so he spun himself a cozy cocoon and waited patiently. It was hard to be still and wait, but he knew it would be worth it in the end.

After a few weeks, Charlie emerged from his cocoon as a beautiful butterfly, just like the one he had seen in the sky. He flew around, flapping his wings with joy, and showed off his new colors to all of his friends.

From that day on, Charlie spent his days exploring the world as a beautiful butterfly. He knew that anything was possible if he just followed his curiosity and was patient enough to wait for it.
